CLAIMS THE NILE.

Great Britain Wants Control of the Great River and All Its Watersheds.

WILL NOT DISCUSS FRENCH CLAIMS.

Salisbury Has Made It Clear, it is Claimed, That Maj. Marchand Must Quit Fashoda.

England Prepared to Negotiate the Question of the Western Frontier of Bahr-EI-Ghazal District—France Must Accept the Position.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—All interest Tuesday was centered in the marquis of Salisbury's addition to the Fashoda correspondence, contained in the publication of the British blue book on that subject. The conservative newspapers express themselves as being highly pleased with his rejoinder to the French yellow book on the same subject. They declare that it dispels the idea spread by the dispatch of the French ambassador here, Baron de Courcel, that the British premier was willing to negotiate on the whole question. But the liberal and radical organs still consider that the marquis of Salisbury's attitude admits of negotiations promising a friendly arrangement. The entire press, however, scouts the idea of the possession of Fashoda coming within the sphere of the discussion.

The St. James Gazette Tuesday afternoon says: "We are prepared to negotiate the question of the western frontier of the Bahr-EI-Ghazal district, but we must control the Nile, both banks and watersheds, from the source to the sea."

The Globe thinks the marquis of Salisbury has made it clear that Maj. Marchand must quit Fashoda without conditions. "Until that is done," the Globe says, "there can be no discussion of the French claims in Africa."

The Globe points out the significant announcement in Gen. Kitchener's report that he sent gunboats south from Sebat toward Meshra-Er-Rek, the principal trading center of the Bahr-EI-Ghazal region, with instructions to establish necessary outposts, and that before he left Sebat he completed arrangements for the maintenance of those stations. "This move," the Globe adds, "brings our position down to the eighth parallel of north latitude, and the valley of the Bahr-EI-Ghazal at this moment is under the rule of the khedive. It will be interesting to see the effect of this revelation upon the French government."

The Pall Mall Gazette concludes from the publication of the blue book that the French government has been given to understand that, wholly apart from the Fashoda question, its title to the territory abutting on the left bank of the Nile is "rejected as utterly untenable and France must accept the position or take the consequences."

The Westminster Gazette suggests as a solution that the French be granted "way leave" and "enclave" for commercial purposes in the Bahr-EI-Ghazal district. "Way leave" is the right of way over another's ground. "Enclave" is to shut in, to enclose territory within the territories of another power. The French papers Tuesday are most hopeful and believe that a pacific solution of the dispute will be found.

Creston Clarke.

The theatre patrons of this community are looking forward with great pleasure to the engagement of the Creston Clarke Company which will appear at the Auditorium Tuesday evening, Nov. 1.

The management has made arrangements with Mr. Clarke to stop here for one night on his western tour, and already there has been a great demand for seats. Mr. Clarke, assisted by Miss Adelaide Prince, will present "The Last of His Race," a romantic drama in four acts. That the presentation will be a successful one is assured. Mr. Clarke has surrounded himself with one of the most capable companies that can be procured. Each member of the company may well be called a star in the particular line of work assigned.

There was a time when Mr. Clarke announced himself as the nephew of the great tragedian Edwin Booth and drew patronage on that account. Today, however, all that is passed, Mr. Clarke appears on his merits as an actor, and to say that he is without a peer in romantic drama is but illy expressing it. Much of the success of Mr. Clarke's plays is due to the magnificent acting of his leading lady, Miss Adelaide Prince. Miss Prince's powers are too well known to need much comment. Educated, as she has been, under Augustin Daly, playing second to Miss Ada Rehan, and for the last several years as a star in leading roles, she has proven herself in every way capable from an artistic standpoint, worthy of all that was expected of her by teachers. In addition to Miss Prince's art her beauty and magnificent gowns are at once attractive to the eye.

RIOTS IN PARIS.

Great Crowd Assembled at the Opening Meeting of the Chamber of Deputies—Several Kiosks Burned.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—Strong bodies of police were stationed in the neighborhood of the Palais Bourbon and the Place de la Concorde Tuesday to prevent the projected demonstrations at the opening of the chamber of deputies.

The French cabinet met Tuesday morning and the minister of marine, M. Lockroy, announced that he would shortly introduce a scheme for the administrative and financial reorganization of the navy.

A meeting of progressives and republicans decided not to support the government's internal policy, but to uphold to the fullest extent its foreign policy.

There was considerable disorder about the approaches of the Palais Bourbon when Mm. Dorouledo, Millevoise and other deputies arrived, accompanied by a crowd of supporters. Members of the League of Patriots, who were crossing the Place de la Concorde, shouted "Vive l'armee," and the republican guards were obliged to clear a passage. A conflict with the police ensued. A band of anti-Semites attacked and injured a commissary of police with loaded sticks. The ringleader, M. Guerier, president of the anti-Semitic league, was arrested. When M. Drumont, the anti-Semite leader, arrived, there were further disturbances, with cries of "Down with the Jews" and cheering for France. A detachment of cuirassiers charged and dispersed the mob. Several arrests were made.

The session of the chamber of deputies had no sooner opened than M. Derouledo made a violent attack upon the minister of war, Gen. Chanoine, whereupon the latter arose and explained the conditions under which he accepted the portfolio. In so doing he declared that he was of the same opinion as his predecessors, evidently referring to the question of reopening the Dreyfus case, a remark which was greeted with cheers and protests, the uproar lasting five minutes.

When Gen. Chanoine was able to resume speaking he asserted that he was the guardian of the honor of the army, and concluded with saying angrily: "I place in your hands the trust I received and I tender my resignation in this tribune."

The announcement was received with loud cheering.

Gen. Chanoine then left the chamber of deputies, and the premier, M. Brisson, ascended the tribune. There he was greeted with shots of "Resigned," while the leftists cheered him lustily.

The popular demonstrations, which began after the chamber adjourned are becoming more violent. The mob has burned several kiosks. The police continue to make arrests, but it has no effect in subduing the disorder.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—Scrutiny of the vote upon M. De Mahy's resolution calling upon the government to "End the campaign of insult against the army," which M. Brisson, the premier, refused to accept, showed that the government was defeated.

After the result of the scrutiny had been declared Mr. Bertheau moved a vote of confidence in M. Brisson. It was rejected, 286 to 254 votes.

Warships to Havana.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—On the authority of Secretary of the Navy Long, it was stated Monday night that this government will soon send several warships to Havana.
